Police File No. 128 of 1919

2 In connection with the decentralisation of powers in the Revenue Department certain powers were delegated to the Revenue Commr and the Deputy Commissioners of Districts in G.O. No. R. 6030-81 L.R. (93-17-3 dy) 18th Nov 1918 one of the powers given to the Revenue Commr under that order was the power to sanction investigation of arrear claims under Art 5 of the C.A.C. The corresponding section to this in the Mysore Account Code is Art 10 (B).

3. The question for consideration now is why should not the I.G. of Police be similarly authorised in respect of arrear claims.

4 Such a step if taken will obviate the necessity of such questions coming up to Government and may facilitate their disposal. Submitted for orders.

11. The question of ~~power~~ delegation of this power to all Heads of Depts was raised in the general file relating to decentralisation but was not approved, as the Fin[l] Sec[y] objected to it (vide ~~page~~ E. A. No. File 256-17).

(Flag)

12. The question was subsequently raised in connection with additional powers to be delegated to the Rev Com[r] and the Fin[l] Sec[y] again objected (vide para 26 of the notes in L. R. 193 of 1917 861-3). But the Dewan, Sir M. Visvesvaraya was of opinion that the objection was not quite tenable, and the Council agreed with him and the Rev Com[r] has been invested with this power.

~~The following other Heads of Depts have been similarly invested.~~

13. The D. G. of Police might be similarly empowered, as it will save a lot of routine file Comm[n] up & down.
